

The Positive Health Benefits of Higher Education

Johnny Appletree

University of California, Davis

27th International Symposium of Higher Education

Note: This research was supported by the College Futures Foundation and conducted in partnership with the California Student Aid Commission. The authors are also grateful for ongoing support from the Stuart Foundation to the California Education Lab. The California Education Lab at the University of California, Davis and Policy Analysis for California Education are also thankful for research dissemination support from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. The findings and conclusions here are those of the authors alone and do not necessarily reflect the positions or policies of the funders or of the California Student Aid Commission.

This is a frame title

This is normal text

- Item 1
 - Item 1
 - Item 1
 - Item 2
 - Item 2
- Item 2

This is a Title

This is a Subtitle

Theorem (This is a theorem)

Let S be the set of all university students. For $\forall s \in S$, we have $H(A|Graduate) \geq H(A|NotGraduate)$ where $H: S \rightarrow \Omega$ is an injection from the set of all students S onto the set of all health outcomes Ω .

► Back to list